

I fully expect the state of wisconsin's no call policy to remain in effect, unchanged. I have no intension of going back to the constant disruptions of sales phone calls all hours of the night. I had a policy of not dealing with anyone who called our home to sell us something. How the industry thinks this is to their advantage is beyond me.
Randall and Diane Pilak